Policies and Procedures: Exclusion.

I operate an inclusive setting, where all children are welcome. There are however certain occasions when it may be necessary to ask a parent to not bring their child. These reasons include (but not exclusively limited to):

- Contagious illness or serious injury (temporary exclusion)
- Continuous aggression from the child.
- Continuous aggression from the parents/carers.
- Continuous use of inappropriate language/remarks from parent/child.
- If the child is likely to cause harm to another in the setting.
- If the child is found to be stealing from staff or other children.
- If the child continuously puts themselves or others in danger.
- Damage to property and equipment.
- Continuous non-payment of invoice.
- Continuous late collection of child.

For the majority of the points listed above, I will have already discussed my concerns with you and have tried to work with you to solve the problem.
